MOTOR SPORT CAN BE DANGEROUS

Rules and Insurance Waiver for Off Road Events

1. All drivers must be over the age of 16yrs.
2. Minimum height for driving is 5ft.
3. All drivers must sign an insurance waiver before taking part in any event.
4. Any persons believed to be under the influence of alcohol or drugs will not be permitted to drive.
5. All drivers are to wear the crash helmets and overalls provided whilst driving the Quads.
6. Crash helmets must have the visor down when taking part in the event.
7. The site marshals must be obeyed at all times by both drivers and pit crew.
8. Anybody deemed to be driving or acting in a dangerous manner whilst driving, or in the pit area, so as to cause an injury to themselves or any other member of the team, staff included, will be stopped from taking part in the event. (Health and Safety requires that any vehicle involved must be scrutinised for any structural or mechanical defects).
9. No bumping into another driver is allowed, as this will be classed as dangerous driving and the driver responsible will not be allowed to continue in the event. The Quad will be withdrawn from the event and no refund will be given.
10. Care must be taken at all times NOT make contact with the quad in front during an event, if this occurs your quad will lift into the air, losing control which could lead to serious injury or death to either driver. The track is constructed to give adequate space for drivers to avoid collision with a minimum of barriers or obstacles and plenty of space to run wide.
11. No member of the team is permitted to wander round the track whilst an event is in progress.
12. All drivers must stop immediately if a red flag is shown.

I have read and understood the rules as above also that any motor sport event may incorporate an element of danger to my person and or my property and that I am participating there in the full knowledge of the risk presented to my person or property. I also acknowledge that if any machine is rolled or crashed by any team member or myself it will be removed from my team and not replaced and that we are liable for any damage caused to it with no refund available. I have been advised by Sudden Impact of the dangers of participating in this event and accordingly, I hereby declare that I am participating in this event at my own risk.

RELEASE:

I hereby release, remit and forever discharge from any claims and liabilities whatsoever, without limitations, that I have against Sudden Impact Lt the owners of the property, and any other persons, howsoever caused, that may arise from having attended this event. I make this release on behalf of myself, my heirs, executors and Administrators.
